WHY DO THE JEWS HATE JESUS "THE REDEEMER"

There is really a basic simple answer as to why the Jews and other hybrid tribes around the world will not discuss.

This is also true for the Jewish and Roman (Edomite) Orthodox Catholic and Christian Church's (JROCCC) refuse to go into detail about what is behind this animosity.

TO FIND THE ORIGIN OF THIS HATE YOU HAVE TO GO WAY BACK TO WHEN OUR HEAVENL
FATHER AND JESUS CREATED THE EARTH

You need to learn who the first or original ROOT RACE ON EARTH WERE.

Next you need to learn who the enemy of this ORIGINAL SCANDINAVIA ROOT RACE WAS.

Jesus is the creator of the original bloodline of Scandinavian Mitochondria people groups. He is also the creator of the original world that original man was placed on which has become a contaminated world today. Jesus came to that bloodline in Northern Israel to teach them about who they were and to warn them about what will be happening on earth soon because of these evil hybrid bloodlines that are taking control of our world once again. (Yes this has happened before).

Zamariel

Nineteen to the Nineteenth power millennium years ago, before there was a universe, before there was a single molecule, before there was Adam, and after God became lonely, God created the angels to keep his company. God named his first Angel, Zamariel. Mar 7, 2017

Jesus (Yashua) was part of the godhead. Together they created the WATCHERS who were the ORIGINAL guardians (Christians call them angels) of the ORIGINAL ROOT RACE on earth. 1/3 of these watchers fell to become the FALLEN WATCHERS known in Genesis as the Elohim gods.

Its preface states: "the distinctive Hebrew name for God (usually transliterated Jehovah or Yahweh) is in this translation represented by 'The Lord'." A footnote to Exodus 3:14 states: "I am sounds like the Hebrew name Yahweh traditionally transliterated as Jehovah." The New International Version (1978, revised 2011).

These 'fallen angels' are also called evil spirits, unclean spirits, or more simply demons. In the Greek world the word 'daimon' was a positive word referring to supernatural creatures midway between gods and human beings.

Who are the seven fallen angels?

The fallen angels are named after entities from both Christian and Pagan mythology, such as Moloch, Chemosh, Dagon, Belial, Beelzebub and Satan himself.

What is God's highest name?

In addition to the personal name of God YHWH (pronounced with the vocalizations Yahweh or Jehovah), titles of God used by Christians include the Hebrew titles Elohim, El-Shaddai, and Adonai, as well as Ancient of Days, Father/Abba which is Hebrew, "Most High".

HEBREWS WERE A SEPARTE PEOPLE GROUP FROM THE JEWS WHO WORSHIPPED A DIFFERENT ALIEN FALLEN WATCHER THEY REFERRED TO AS "LORD."

THEY DID NOT WORSHIP OUR HEAVENLY FATHER

My Lord

At the same time, the divine name was increasingly regarded as too sacred to be uttered; it was thus replaced vocally in the synagogue ritual by the Hebrew word Adonai ("My Lord"), which was translated as Kyrios ("Lord") in the Septuagint, the Greek version of the Hebrew Scriptures. Feb 23, 2024

Paul Wallis says that there are Aliens In The Bible! The Elohim Are Real Alien Beings!

We dive deep into one of the most intriguing and controversial topics blending ancient texts and extraterrestrial theories: "Aliens In The Bible! The Elohim Are Real Alien Beings!" with special guest, Paul Wallis. Join us as we explore the ancient Hebrew texts where the term 'Elohim' is used. Wallis, an acclaimed author and researcher, brings a new perspective, suggesting that these 'Elohim' were not mythical deities but real alien beings. We'll dissect historical scriptures, analyze archeological findings, and debate the implications of this theory on our understanding of history, religion, and life beyond Earth. Tune in for a journey through time and space, challenging what we thought we knew about our past and opening doors to the unknown.

Genesis 1:26-28 NOG - Then Elohim said, "Let us make ...

Then Elohim said, "Let us make humans in our image, in our likeness. Let them rule the fish in the sea, the birds in the sky, the domestic animals.

When 1/3 of the WATCHERS fell and decided to become the enemies of ORIGINAL MAN and to destroy our original world they used artificial insemination or lets say cloning techniques to create their own hybrid bloodlines to do their dirty work on earth for them. They created hybrid bloodlines that looked like them instead that had dark hair dark eyes red hair and green eyes. It was our Scandinavian ancestors whose DNA they used to create their hybrid bloodlines. We also need to realize that we all share DNA with of Scandinavian Mothers because of these cloning and artificial insemination techniques they used to create they alien human hybrid races. As I mentioned above these alien hybrids became the dark hair dark eyed red hair green eyed tribes around the world.

JESUS IS THE BIG KAHOONA who the Fallen Watchers have to deal with as they attempt to take over and rule the world using their hybrid bloodline leaders.

The god of the Jews is one of the LESSER FALLEN WATCHERS who is known as Yahweh Ildabaoth the Demiurge YAHWEH. THE ENEMY OF MANKIND. The Demiurge genetically modified the Jewish bloodline into existence as his hybrid SLAVE race. YAHWEH had the Jews attacking and killing off other races, bloodline tribes for land basically because Yahweh did not give them their own land. They had to steel the land in wars.

Yahweh and his Jews hate JESUS because he is the ORIGINAL CREATOR GOD that continues to throw a wrench into the plans of the Jews and the alien gods they worshipped that go back to the Anunnaki gods of Mesopotamia Iraq essentially.

It's really about these ALIEN FALLEN GODS and their hybrid bloodlines having to deal with JESUS AND HIS WATCHERS WHO RULE THE ROOST. THESE FALLEN ALIEN WATCHERS ARE AT WAR WITH JESUS AND HIS WATCHERS TODAY BEHIND THE SCENES and human beings are their pawns.  They are at war over us behind the scenes.

They are fighting over our souls and the world Jesus once made for ORIGINAL MAN before these aliens destroyed it at the end of the LAST EARTH AGE (END TIMES) PERIOD 9000 - 12.500 Years ago.

Yes our earth has gone through different EARTH AGES in the past that were destroyed. As you study these wars in light of what science, geology, archeology and legends tell us what you find is that it was the corrupt regions of the world that were primarily destroyed back then. We see the existence of these previous ages under water today and in places that we overlook that were hidden on the surface.

WHY DOES MANKIND NEED A REDEEMER

The JROCCC and their Bibles do not give us the WHOLE PICTURE of why earth generations were destroyed and why we Need a Redeemer but the Mormon data does by giving us data that was left out of the JROCCC Bibles.

THIS DOES APPEAR TO BE WHAT HAPPENEDE IN THE VERY BEGINNING IF YOU CHECK ALL THE CONNECTED DATA FROM ALL SIDES OF THE PICTURE OF HUMAN ORIGINS

Jesus and Our Heavenly Father created a PERFECT WORLD and placed perfect people on it in physical bodies in order to physically interact with the physical world. When Satan the leader of the Fallen Watchers moved in his goal was to destroy the original PARADISE of man. Satan and his FALLEN WATCHERS wanted run the show and to exalt himself above Jesus and Our Heavenly Father. WE ARE TALKING ABOUT ALIENS AND OTHER DIMENSIONALS HERE GOOD AND BAD.

Next mankind fell under the FORCED GUIDENCE of Satan. MANKIND became corrupt in all ways.

Once that happened Jesus and his WATCHERS pulled back or out because good and evil vibrate differently and because mankind was given the choice to sin that is referred to as "our free will "

As mankind fell and Satan's lower vibrations moved into or world it was clear that the devastation to the original world and mankind was horrendous.

These evil beings were then forced inside the earth and into other dimensions aka DARK MATTER to continue their tyranny, which is where they are today.

The earth became so corrupt that it was not worth saving. The elite hybrid leaders of mankind running the show were so corrupt that destruction was the end result as in what happened during the Younger Dryas, Pole Shift Ice Age incident on earth that recently happened 9000- 12.500. Archeologists, geologists, science and legends ALL TELL US THE SAME STORY from their perspective.

THERE ARE ANGELLIC ALIEN WARS GOING ON IN THE HEAVENS AND UNSCENE LOCATIONS OVER MANKIND JUST AS PROPHECY STATES

This all sounds like a FAIRY TALE to us, or plots for movies but if you can take out the fairy dust and woo woo, you will begin to see that this is happening in real time.

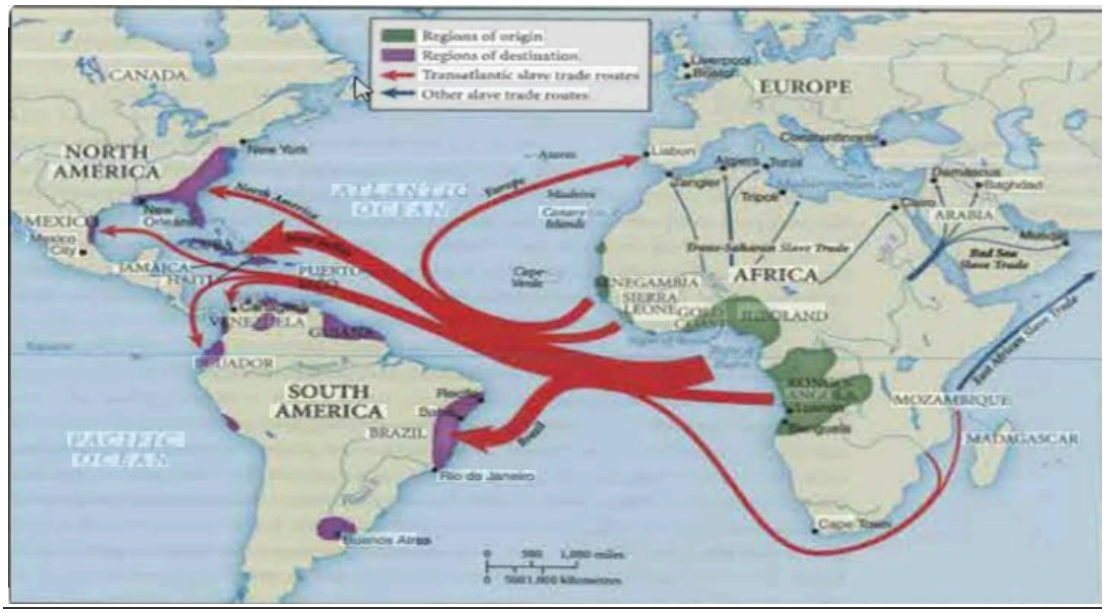
This explains why we have a beautiful world with all sorts of flaws. This explains all of the UFO and alien sightings around the world.

I will be adding my words into this article below in black.

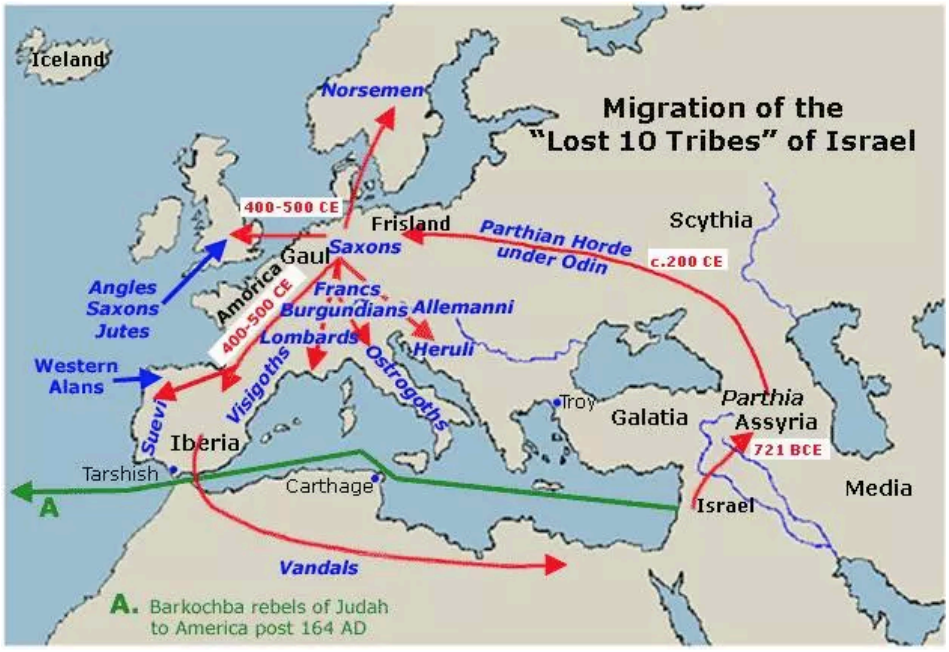
WHAT DO THE MORMONS SAY ABOUT THE FALL OF MAN

The Mormons are two of the Lost 10 Tribes of Israel who now live in America. They formed the Mormon religion.

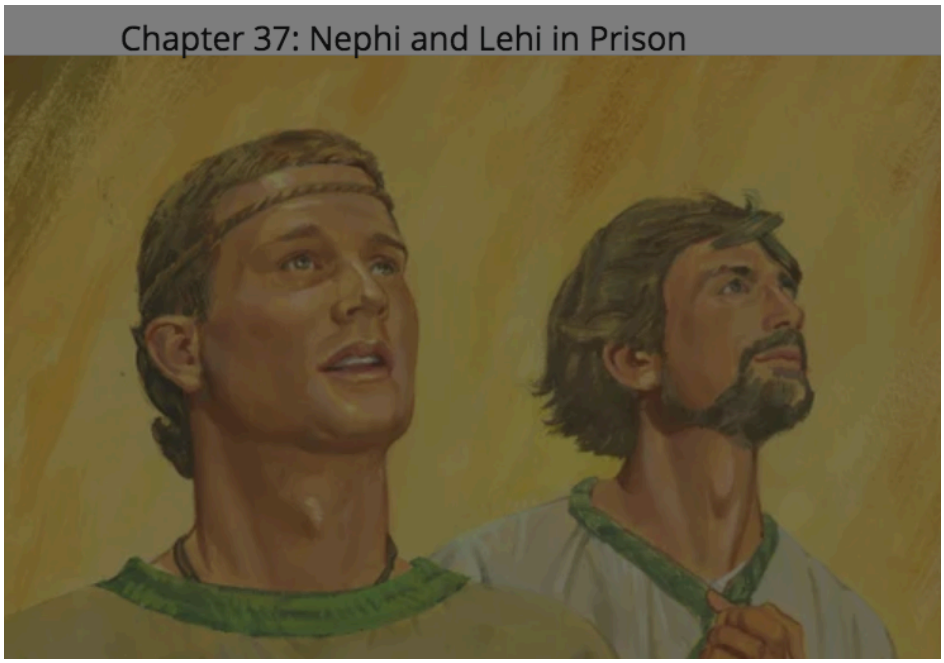
Judging from this map the tribe of Lehi appear to have been an Arab Semite Shoshu bloodline related to the Jews and Canaanites, where Naphtali tribe appear to have been the Scandinavian Northern Israelites who bred with the original Scandinavian Apiru race that were indigenous to Northern Israel. APIRU + SHOSHU = HEBREW.



There were several travel routes back then that led to America that the Tribe of Lehi could have taken



These are the Travel Routes of the Lost 10 Tribes of Israel into Europe before they migrated to America



Naphtali tribes were Scandinavians Apiru tribes that came from Northern Israel

Naphtali are Scandinavian tribes who together with the tribes of Lehi formed Mormonism in America. The information below is from the Mormon book of Moses. A book the Edomites did not place in the Roman Bibles.

Below is Father Lehi's great discourse to his son Jacob in Israel about the difficulties of trying to raise teenagers as it has to do with how Jesus and Our Heavenly Father and Mother feel about dealing with the WATCHERS and FALLEN WATCHERS

Many parents, as they have labored through the process of raising a teenager, may have wondered at times if Satan's idea of destroying agency was such a bad idea. However, most parents have learned from experience that trying to control a child's decisions, even in the right direction, can often result in the child's rebellion. Very few, if any, like to be forced to do something, even if it is good. Having the right to live according to our personal desires and to exercise our agency, even if what we choose is not wise or good for us, is very precious to us. We prize our moral agency so highly that any attempt to undermine, circumvent, manipulate, control, or eliminate it often leads to conflict. These battles have spanned heaven and earth and have included both individuals and great assemblies.

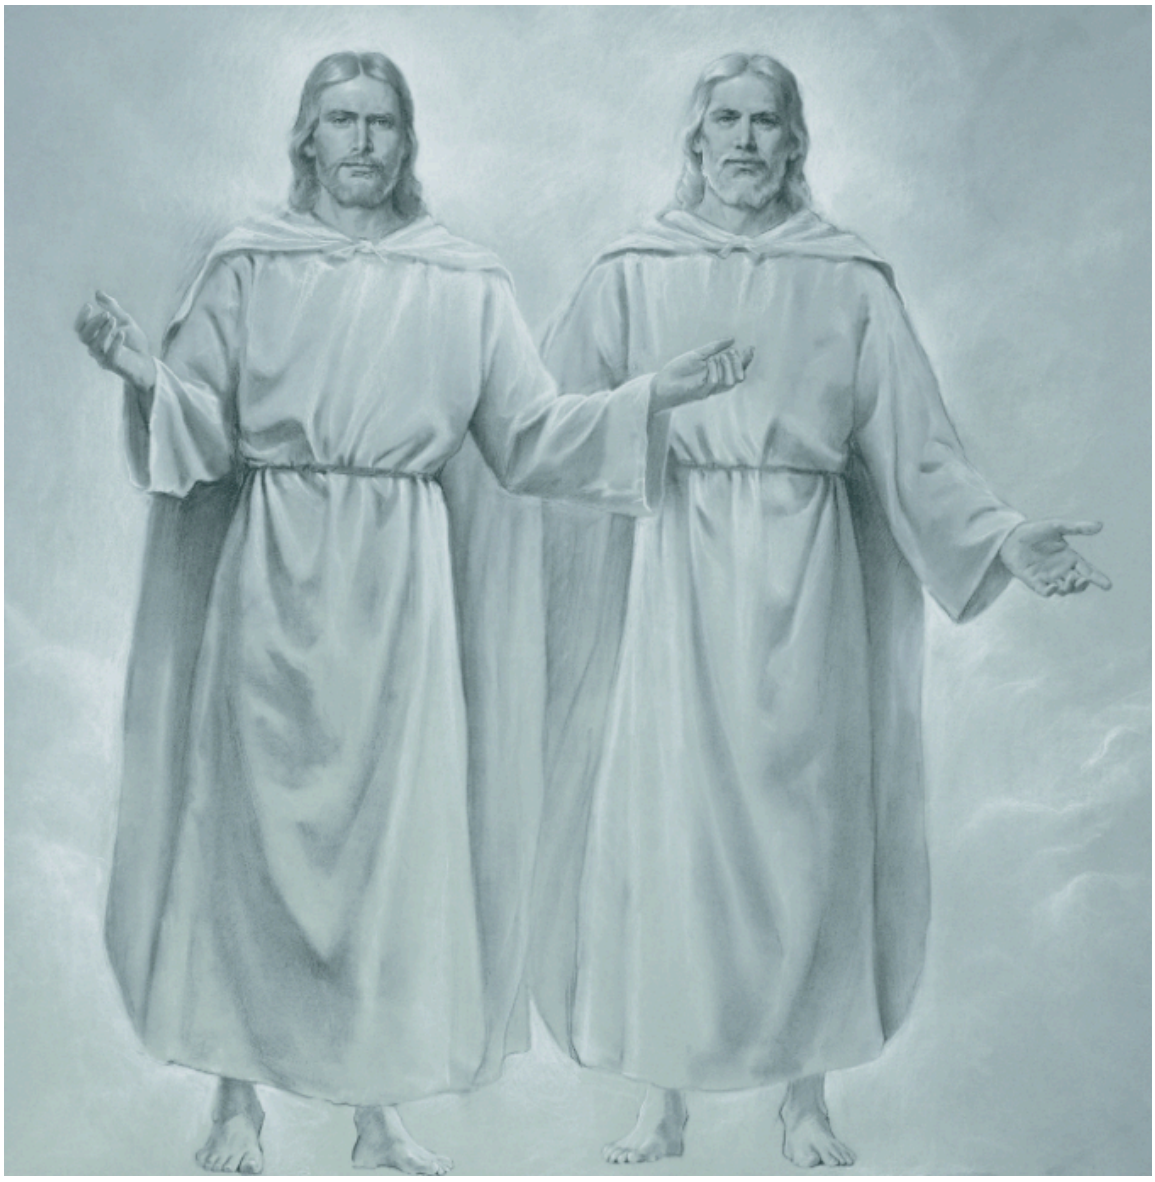
BELOW IS A MORMON BIBLICAL EXPLANTION OF THE WAR IN THE HEAVENS THAT ARE GOING ON TODAY OVER THE SOULS OF MANKIND

USING A BOOK OF MOSES WHICH THE EDOMITES DID NOT PUT IN THE JROCCC BIBLES WE HAVE TODAY IN AN ATTEMPT TO KEEP US DUMBED DOWN

In one of the most significant of such conflicts, Lucifer "became Satan" (joined Satan) (Moses 4:4). When Satan and Lucifer "rebelled against [God], and sought to destroy the agency of man" (Moses 4:3), there was "war in heaven" (Revelation 12:7).

That conflict led to Satan being "thrust down from the presence of OUR HEAVENLY FATHER" (D&C 76:25) to the inner earth and other dimensions which seem to include ARK MATTER.

Sadly, Satan was able to amass a large following to his cause which resulted in the loss of "a third part of the hosts of heaven" (D&C 29:36; Revelation 12:4), the first casualties of what has become an ongoing war.[1]



JESUS AND OUR HEAVENLY FATHER'S symbolic images.
"Like Father like son"

They created and rule over the NORDIC WATCHERS. While Satan and Luciferian forces rule over the FALLEN WATCHERS.

The scriptures do not give much detail about what Satan proposed or how he promoted his ideas in the war in heaven. However, they do reveal significant information in regard to his motives and character, which is very helpful in understanding his tactics. We know that Satan was ORIGINALLY "an angel alien avatar of OUR HEAVENLY FATHER who was in authority . . . who rebelled" against OUR HEVENLY FATHER and his Son JESUS YASHUA (D&C 76:25). He desired the "honor" and "power" (D&C 29:36) of OUR HEAVENLY FATHER for himself. He wanted not only to "exalt [his] JESUS YAHASUA'S throne above the stars of THE SECOND HEAVEN which is the THIRD HEAVEN WHERE JESUS AND OUR HEAVENLY FATHERS REALM EXISTS. (Isaiah 14:13) but also to exalt himself above all, including OUR HEAVENLY FATHER (see 2 Thessalonians 2:4).[2]

President Ezra Taft Benson taught that Satan's pride created a desire not only to be honored, but "to be honored above all others. In short, his prideful desire was to dethrone OUR HEAVENLY FATHER AS WELL."[3]

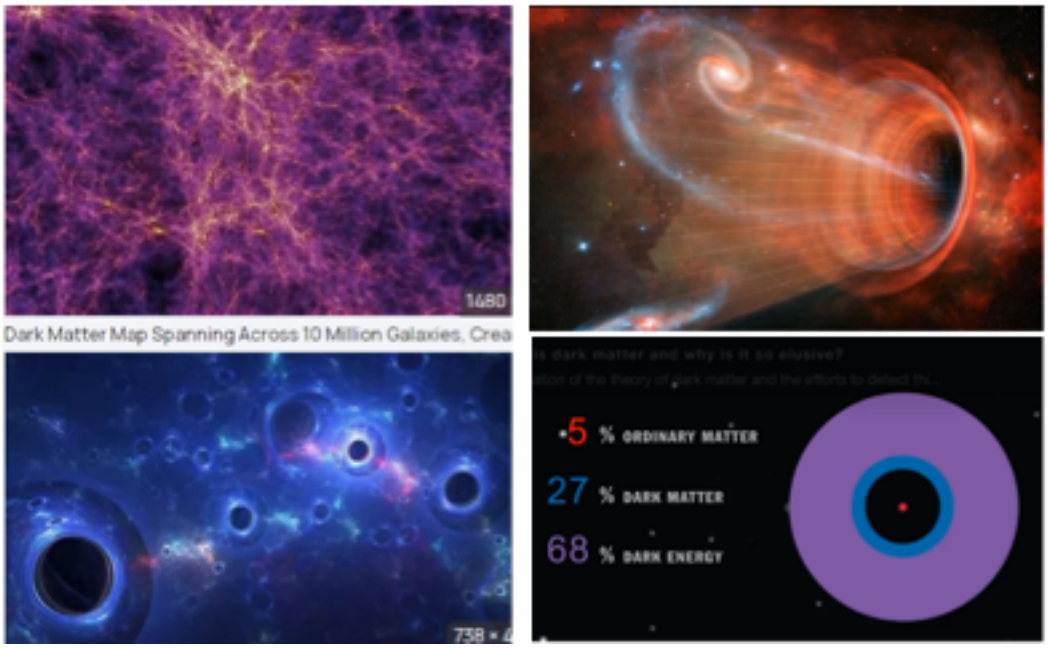
The Doctrine and Covenants tells us that Satan wanted "to take OVER the kingdom of OUR HEAVENLY FATHER and his Christ" (D&C 76:28). This was not just a resentful resistance to OUR HEVENLY FATHERS authority, not just a strong aversion or opposition, but a desire to literally take over. Satan wanted to overthrow our Father in Heaven.



Yet, what happened instead is Satan and his contingencies were forced or tossed inside the earth known as hell and by other names and into other dimensions, which today seem to be associated with DARK MATTER.

If you look into these legends, DARK MATTER did not always exist. It is an added feature also known as the 2nd Heaven where the alien gods travel in and out of. Prophecy tells us that after Jesus returns this time that DARK MATTER will be destroyed and that we will always be live the light on earth, or something to that affect.

Council in Heaven
In the premortal life, our Heavenly Father called a Grand Council to present His plan for our progression. We learned that if we followed His plan, we would become like Him. We would be resurrected; we would have all power in heaven and on earth; we would become heavenly parents and have spirit children just as He does.
Because our Heavenly Father chose Jesus Christ to be our Savior, Satan became angry and rebelled. There was war in heaven. Satan and his followers fought against Jesus Christ and His followers. The Savior's followers "overcame [Satan] by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony" See more on War in Heaven above:

ABOVE IS A SYMBOLIC EXAMPLE OF JESUS IN HIS HEAVENLY COUNCIL WHERE HE SEEMS TO BE REFERRING TO DARK SOULS THAT ARE WALKING AMONG US THAT ARE NOT REDEEMABLE

It appears that Satan felt there was an opportunity to attain his desires when our Heavenly Father presented a plan that would result in the loss of some souls. The Prophet Joseph Smith taught his followers that Jesus said there would be certain souls that would not be saved; and the devil, who appears to be a title for Satan, said he could save them all, and laid his plans before the grand council who gave their voice in favor of Jesus Christ.

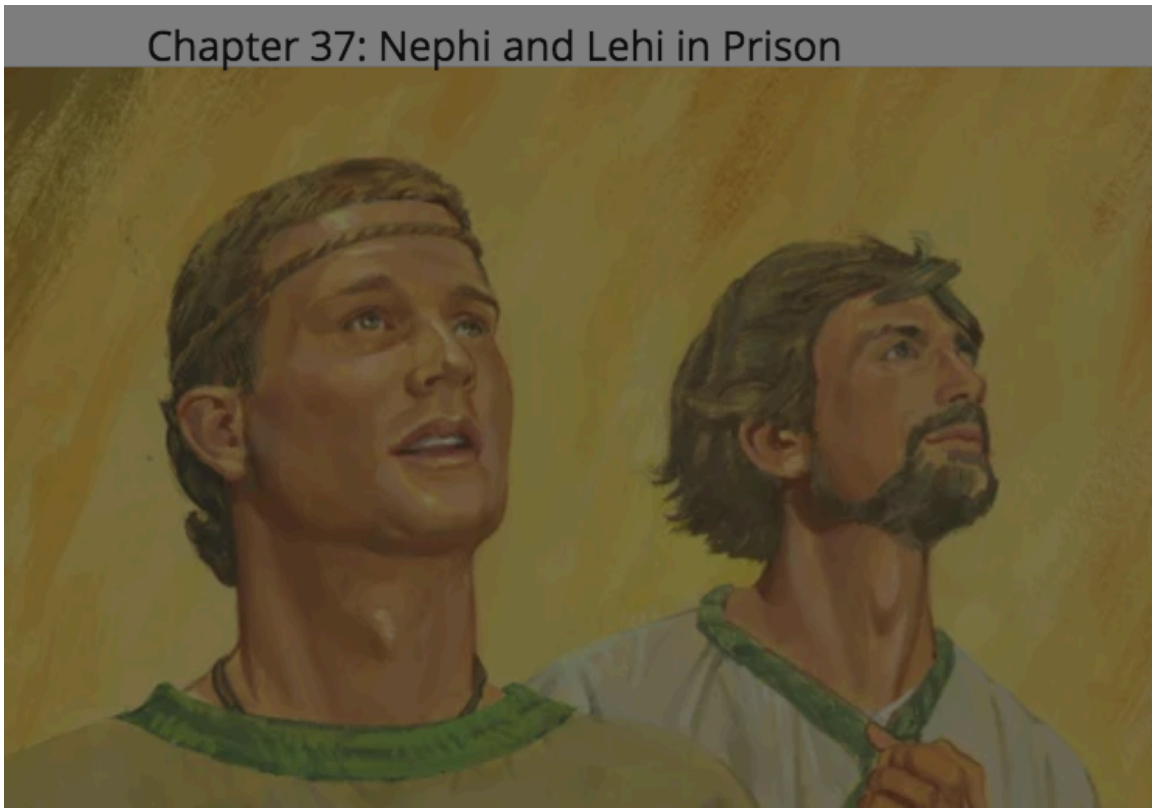
So the devil rose up in rebellion against Our Heavenly Father, Jesus and his WATCHRS, and was cast down (to the inner earth and dark dimensions), with all who put up their heads for him (worshipped for followed Satan)."

Lazarus who was a Jew seems to have been one of those who Jesus had to rescue.



Naphtali appears to be a Hebrew Scandinavian Apiru descent where Levi was a descendent of the Jewish Semite Shoshu alien human hybrid bloodline associated with the Jews and Canaanites

How SATANS AGENDA Could Be Destroyed

The scriptures are silent concerning how Satan proposed to "redeem all mankind, that one soul shall not be lost" (Moses 4:1). It appears that he intended to force or intimidate mankind to accomplish this compliance to AGENCY rules mandatory FOR SALVATION aka the rescue of mankind.

Yet, it appears that Jesus rules as to how he intended to run the Agency instead is to make our salvation based on FREE WILL. He wanted us to choose Him to follow his ideologies and teachings not the teachings of the satanic world that surrounds us.

LIKE PRESIDENT TRUMP THESE GOOD AND EVIL FORCES PLAY CHESS WITH ONE ANOTHER

Yet Satan presented an argument that was so convincing as to persuade many to prefer it over the Father's plan. The scriptures tell us that Satan's proposal would "destroy the agency (planned agenda of Jesus) for man" (Moses 4:3). Just how Satan's plan would destroy agency is not explained. The most often taught theory is that Satan wanted to force mankind to live according to his gospel. However, nowhere in these ancient scriptures are the words where Satan states that he would "force" or "compel" mankind. In addition, the scriptures teach that Satan "persuadeth no man to do good, no, not one" (Moroni 7:17) and that he is "the father of all lies" (Moses 4:4; 2 Nephi 2:18) and has been so “from the beginning” (D&C 93:25) meaning that you can't trust anything he may have said anyway.

So what do we think that Satan’s plans are. If you do your homework like I have been doing for 25 years what you find is that these evil alien beings want to destroy our souls by using and manipulating their hybrid bloodlines to influence what is happening on earth. This is what is going on during alien abductions. They place alien implants in people as tracking devices and as objects that they can use to communicate their messages to them. I believe that both satanic alien forces the DEEP STATE Shadow Government and the PEOPLES UNDERGROUND GOVERNMENT are MANIPULATING the thoughts of many prophets out there. Jesus warned us about these false prophets that will be out like flies today.

They think they are hearing the VOICE OF GOD when the DARK SIDE the DEEP STATE is manipulating them and this also includes the GOOD GUYS in our government that are also to using VOICE TO SKULL TECHNOLOGIES today. If you dig deeper you learn that the Nazi's alive today are part of all of this. This is a real can of worms.

This seems to be one say to force human beings into compliance.

To be “forced” does not seem to be very appealing, nor is it likely that such an argument was compelling enough to rally a large following. As mentioned previously, most people not only resent being forced, but usually oppose it vigorously. Robert J. Matthews taught:

I think we often miss the major issue of the contention in premortality that eventually led to the war in heaven. We talk about it as though Satan were going to force everybody to obey when he said, "I will redeem all mankind, that one soul shall not be lost"—we interpret that as meaning that he was proposing forced obedience.

It seems strange to me that a third of all the spirits that had the potential to be born into this world would have favored a proposal of forced obedience. Most of us do not like to be forced. As I see it, the issue was not so much one of force as it was that Satan said he would guarantee salvation for his spirit brothers and sisters. He promised salvation without excellence, without effort, without hard work, without individual responsibility, and without obedience to righteous laws. That is the lie he promulgated in the pre-earth councils. To do this he had to use implanted technology and other methods, however his compliance was to his agency rules not the agency rules Jesus set up. Satan wanted to destroy our souls where Jesus wants to save our souls that are the real living beings in side all of us that activate our bodies and use our bodies to maneuver on earth.

President J. Reuben Clark Jr. suggested that Satan's proposal may have involved something other than simple force. He said, "Satan's plan required one of two things: Either the compulsion of the mind, the spirit, the intelligence of man, or else saving men in sin."[8] This second option has some interesting implications, which we will examine later. Forcing people "to do good" may be one way to destroy agency, but it is not the only way.

To understand how Satan may have sought to destroy agency, we must understand what agency is and what is required in order for it to operate. Elder Bruce R. McConkie explained it this way:

> Jesus version of Agency rule is the ability and freedom to choose good or evil. . . . Four great principles must be in force if there is to be agency rule under Jesus:
> 1. Laws must exist, laws ordained by an Omnipotent power, laws which can be obeyed or disobeyed;
> 2. Opposites must exist—good and evil, virtue and vice, right and wrong—that is, there must be opposition, one force pulling one way and another pulling the other;
> 3. A knowledge of good and evil must be had by those who are to enjoy the agency rule, that is, they must know the differences between the opposites; and
> 4. An unfettered power of choice must prevail.[9]
> The sad reality is that chip implants are designed to abolish free will.

The most common conclusion seems to be that Satan's desire was to eliminate point 4, the "unfettered power of choice" by forcing mankind to "be good or to follow his plan for mankind." However, agency rules required all four conditions to be in place. The removal of any of them would destroy agency rule. As one considers the options, it is difficult to imagine even those wicked spirits that made up the "third part" that followed Satan being amenable to being forced.

With chip implants you are not in control of what you do or even when you do evil at times similar to the mind gamed shooter we talk about today who are programmed to kill someone.

The Need for a Redeemer

To appreciate some of the options that may have been more appealing to those that chose to follow Satan, let us briefly examine the heart of the gospel plan—the need for a redeemer. Satan sought this position, for which Jesus Yashua had been chosen "from the beginning" (Moses 4:1). The need for a redeemer is abundantly spoken of in scripture. We can capsulate these teachings by referring to just a few scriptures.

Because of the Fall of THE HYBRID ADAM AND EVE IN THE PERSIAN GULF GARDEN, we all need a redeemer. From the Fall of hybrid man, the natural (ORIGINAL SCANDINAVIAN) man has become “an enemy to Our Heavenly Father and Jesus (Mosiah 3:19). When we break the laws of Our Heavenly Father or Jesus, we sin, “for sin is the transgression of the law” (of agency) (1 John 3:4). Because “all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God” (Romans 3:23), we all find ourselves unfit to dwell in the presence of Jesus or Our Heavenly Father, for “no unclean thing can enter into his kingdom” (3 Nephi 27:19) or “dwell in his presence” (Moses 6:57). And “by reason of transgression man became fallen [and] were cut off from the presence of the Our Heavenly Father and Jesus. Wherefore, it must needs be an infinite atonement—save it be an infinite atonement this corruption could not put on incorruption” (2 Nephi 9:6–7). Thus without a redeemer man would have become “lost forever,” and there would be “no means to reclaim men from this fallen state” (Alma 42:6, 12).

SPIRITUAL POLITICS IN ACTION

Our Father in Heaven’s plan required the sending of Jesus as an avatar to mankind to teach them the salvation plan for mankind.

Satan’s request of the Father to “send me, was the start of the conflict between good and evil between Jesus and Satan.

"Send me instead said Jesus, I will be thy extension on earth your avatar.”

(Moses 4:1) Satan did not want to settle for being extension of our Heavenly Father as his avatar; he wanted God’s throne.

A REDEEMER FOR MAN WAS NECESSARY TO TEACH THE RULES FOR REDEMPTION KNOWN AS

Known as the Laws of Agency

TO ME THESE ARE TWO DIFFERENT SCRITURE TEACHINGS WHERE MOSES A JEWISH SOURCE IS DISAGREEING HEWBREW PROPHETIC KNOWLEGE. THEY DID NOT WORSHIP THE SAME ALIEN GODS

LEVI VS NEIPHI TEACHINGS

SIMILAR TO JEWISH LAW VS THE PROPHETS

In Father Lehi's great discourse to his son Jacob it states that a redeemer for man was needed (2 Nephi 2:7). He also explained that there is a "punishment which is affixed" (v. 10) unto the Law of the Jews through Moses ideologies and the teachings of the agency laws of Jesus. Keep in mind that Jesus had not come to town yet. He appeared on earth hundreds of years later to teach and warn his followers as to what is to come and to follow his lead his agency rules.

THE JEWS WERE GIVEN THEIR LAWS FROM YAHWEH ILDBAOTH THE DEMIURGE THROUGH MOSES, WHERE THE HEBREW TRIBES DID NOT BEELIEVE IN THE JEWISH LAWS

DID THE HEBREW PEOPLE NEED A REDEEMER OR NOT?

Jesus then taught, "If ye shall say there is no law, ye shall also say there is no sin" (v. 13). In other words, if there is no AGENCY law there is nothing forbidden, and if nothing is forbidden there can be no such thing as sin nor agency. "How could [there be] sin if there is no law?" asked Alma (Alma 42:17; see also Romans 4:15).[11] If there is no sin, there is no need for a redeemer to offer HIMSELF A TEACHER OF AGENCY LAW.

JACOB JUSTIFIES THE NEED FOR A LAW AND REDEEMER

Jacob later taught that "where there is no law given there is no punishment; and where there is no punishment there is no condemnation" (2 Nephi 9:25).[12]

If Satan could destroy Jesus law of Agency, he would also destroy both the need for a sinless redeemer and agency.

Lehi explained to Jacob that if there is no law there is no opposition, and if there is no opposition "man could not act for himself" (2 Nephi 2:16), meaning that man could not have agency, for there are no alternatives from which to choose. Speaking on this subject, Elder Dallin H. Oaks said, "In other words, if we did not have opposition, we could not exercise our free will through Jesus agency laws by making our own choices."

In the Doctrine and Covenants Jesus would later say "And it needs to be known that (Satan) will tempt the children of men," so that they could not be agents unto themselves" (D&C 29:39). If there is no Agency law by Jesus then there can be no temptation to break an Agency law created by Jesus. The result would be the loss of our souls under Satan's control.

Satan boasts that he could "redeem all mankind, that one soul shall not be lost" (Moses 4:1) may have been made on the premise that there would be no law and therefore no sin. President Brigham Young said, "There is no being in all the eternities but what is governed by law. Who is it who desires to have liberty and no law? They who are from beneath which again is a reference to Satan and his minions. This is what Lucifer, the Son of the Morning, wanted. He wanted to save the world without law, to redeem the world without order." If there was no law and, as a result, no sin, there would be nothing that would prohibit entrance into the kingdom of Our Heavenly Father. Satan was fabricating the impression that any conduct would be permitted without any negative consequences. In essence, he was camouflaging the misery that would naturally follow sin.

These are the alien Anunnaki gods the Old Testament refers to

Anunnaki

The Anunnaki (Cuneiform: 𒀭𒀀𒉡𒋀𒆳, also transcribed as Anunaki, Annunaki, Anunna, Ananaki and other variations) are a group of deities of the ancient Sumerians, Akkadians, Assyrians and Babylonians.[1] In the earliest Sumerian writings about them, which come from the Post-Akkadian period, the Anunnaki are deities in the pantheon, descendants of An and Ki, the god of the heavens and the goddess of earth, and their primary function was to decree the fates of humanity.

Four copper-alloy foundation figures depicting ancient Mesopotamian gods wearing characteristic horned crowns (c. 2130 BC)

There is no legitimate information regarding who Lucifer was in the Bible except that Jesus referred to him as the "bright morning star that fell to earth" which seems to mean that at one time he was a GOOD GUY WHO BECAME A FALLEN WATCHER along with Satan. I wonder if Ludifer was the leader of the Nordic Fallen Watchers where Satan was the leader of the dark hair dark eyed, red hair green eyed god and their hybrid tribes.

Lucifer and god Anu are both figures used in different tribal mythologies. The Hebrew tribes that became corrupt were worshipping one group of FALLEN WATCHERS while the Jews worshipped Yahweh Ildabaoth the Demiurge aka YHWH. Who the illusive god Anu was varies depending on the source the data is coming from. Each tribe had their own language in the Middle East. Some sources describe Lucifer as a FALLEN ANGEL who rebelled against Our Heavenly Father and Jesus, that seemed to associate them with the Hebrew Tribes.

Lucifer is reported to be associated with the Anunnaki gods. According to their lore god Anu had two sons Enki and Enlil. Are Satan and Lucifer Enki and Enllil in Mesopotamian lore? Again the connecting data has been lost to us. The connection between them is not present in major religious texts who all have their own legends and name associations.

ALIEN HUMAN HYBRID RACE PART HUMAN PART SOMETHING ELSE

Human Race vs Serpent Hybrid Seed

The Jews, Canaanites and Edomites etc., did seem to worship the Serpent god under Moses while Lucifer was the Hebrew FALLEN WATCHER god who was described as the force who taught the Hebrew people many things including farming. We are not sure WHOSE WHO and as a result, we SPECULATE. The Hebrews refused to worship Yahweh Ildabaoth the Demiurge and instead worshipped a more earth friendly deity who appears to have been a Nordic Alien Fallen Watcher alien god instead.

The god of the Jews in Gnostic lore was a lesser Elohim god whose mother was Sophia Pistis. She was a female FALLEN WATCHER that decided to create Yahweh herself with out a concert. When she saw who he was and how evil he was she placed him in a silver disk (Kavod) and sent him off. We can assume that the silver disc was a UFO today.

This would make Yahweh Ildabaoth the Demiurge the god of the Jews the hybrid son of Sophia Pistis who was described as a reptilian alien.  This alien ate sacrificial burnt offerings from inside the Jewish Tabernacles.

YAHWEH COULD BE THE ORIGIN FOR THE REPTILIAN ALIEN CONTINGENCIES WHO BECAME THE SUNS OF YAHWEH IN THE BIBLE

'Jehovah is the "Lord Archon," a reptilian type of alien predator.. an extra-terrestrial being whose realm is the planetary system independent of the earth, sun and moon. He is not an "advanced being" (i.e., more evolved than humans) but a demented alien with certain superhuman or deific powers. Gnostics taught that Jehovah infects humanity with the belief that he is their creator god, but in fact he cannot create anything.' ~ John Lash

"God"
= the Demiurge
Chief of the Archons, a malicious, jealous, egotistical minor supernatural who, under many names and guises, has deluded many into believing that he is "god", our creator and the creator of the world.
Envying the divine spark within us, the Demiurge and his archons seek to mislead and enslave mankind and work to prevent us from ever awakening to our true potential. Thus they spread fear, hatred and suspicion amongst us and drive us "into all manner of reckless crime, into wars, and frauds, and all things hostile to the nature of the soul".

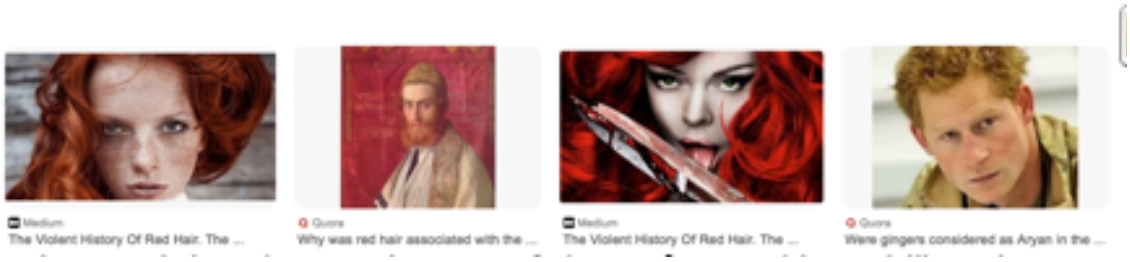
Symbolic Images



Here is a real time human image of these Ånunnaki Nephilim giant gods who most cultures around the world would later come to worship as the descendents of the ancient gods. Their red hair green eyed Edomite descendents of Cain became the bloodline royalty around the world who stole the crowns of our ORIGINAL SCANINAVIAN LINE OF KINGS AND QUEENS. To keep the record straight these Anunnaki gods had dark hair or red hair, brown or green eyes. Their descendents would follow suit most of the time.

THESE ALIENS WERE THE POWERS AND THEIR DEMONIC PRINCIPALITIES THAT JESUS AND THE APOSTLE PAUL SPOKE OF

Principalities (Fallen Angels)

This teaching will address what the Bible refers to as principalities and powers. Principalities and powers are not demons, they are fallen angels. Fallen angels have a much greater level of authority than demons. The Holy Spirit says through Paul, "For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this age, against spiritual hosts of wickedness in the heavenly places" (Ephesians 6:12 NKJV).

Then we have the Nordic looking FALLEN ANGELS who were described as a lesser evil. They were the gods of the Hebrew People worshipped.

Egypt, and if so who gives that instruction?
Carolingian illuminated manuscript, 840 (CC0)

The Fallen Watcher taught the Hebrew people many things that Yahweh Ildabaoth the Demiurge had forbidden

They are still making contact today with alien human hybrid descendents who report these contacts. Most have NO IDEA WHO THEY ARE AND WHY THEY WERE CHOSEN.

These Nordic Aliens landed on Mt. Herman in Genesis Chapter 6 and began to abduct and rape woman back then to create their hybrid bloodlines.

Lucifer created the ANUNNAKI! Which seems to tell us that he was also referred to as god ANU.

Enki, Anu's son is part of Lucifer's ruling empire. It looks like Enki was part of Lucifers contingency that spun off from the Annunakis! Ashtar Sheran and Thoth are just other entities inside Lucifer's contingency! Annunakis alien gods are often described as FALLEN ANGELS! This also applies to Lucifer, since he to described as a FALLEN ANGEL who once again seems to be the god Anu the lead god the Sumerian Anunnaki gods. The Annunaki gods are related to the 9th dimension where Lucifer is associate with the 10th dimension.

Satan appears to be the creator of all evil beings in ancient lore. Again we do not know WHOSE WHO FOR SURE BECAUSE WE CANNOT CONNECT THE DOTS YET THE DATA IS STILL TO ILLUSIVE AND WE ARE MISSING THE CONNECTING PIECES TO THIS PUZZLE.

I have not doubt the DEEP STATE BLOODLINES KNOW and my guess is that Satan is the BIG KAHOONA.

Elder Bruce R. McConkie wrote:

> When the Eternal Father announced his plan of salvation—a plan that called for a mortal probation for all his (spirit children to be redeemed or saved today. Notice this comment is saying Jesus Yashua first place his spirit children on earth that will be redeemed saved or rescued today. It seems to indicate that their are others on earth that are not spiritually connected to the bloodline Jesus known archeologically as ORIGINAL MAN). It a plan that required a Redeemer to ransom men from the coming fall; a plan that could only operate if mortal men followed agency rules or laws—when the Father announced his plan, when he chose Christ as the Redeemer and rejected Lucifer. That was the beginning of WAR in the second heaven and on earth, which is the first heaven.
> That war was a war of words; it was a conflict of ideologies; it was an alien rebellion against God and his Agency laws. Lucifer sought to dethrone God, to sit himself on the divine throne, and to save all men without reference to their works. He sought to deny men their agency so they could not sin. He offered a mortal life of carnality and sensuality, of evil and crime and murder, following which all men would be saved. His offer was a philosophical impossibility. There needs to be an opposition in all things. Unless there are opposites, there is nothing. There can be no light without darkness, no heat without cold, no virtue without vice, no good without evil, no salvation without damnation.

The Propaganda of Satan

The proposal of a life of sin and indulgence, followed by salvation, would seem much more appealing than a proposal to force mankind to keep God's commandments. Elder Orson Pratt taught that Satan's proposal was one to save mankind in their sins, rather than saving them from their sins.[16] President Brigham Young also taught that, "If you undertake to save all, you must save them in unrighteousness and corruption."[17] Doesn't that idea sound familiar? The very persuasion used so successfully today by Satan may be very similar to the one used by him in the premortal life. "Eat, drink, and be merry, for tomorrow we die; and it shall be well with us" (2 Nephi 28:7). "Do this, or do that, and it mattereth not, for the Lord will uphold such at the last day" (Mormon 8:31). The tactics that Satan uses with such great success to gather souls to him in this life may well have been used in his first great gathering in the pre-earth life. President Howard W. Hunter taught that the temptations used by Satan "in leading one-third of the hosts from heaven" continue "to direct his miserable efforts against the children of men here on earth." History seems to indicate that Satan has very few new strategies but successfully uses the same old half-truths packaged a little differently for a particular time or setting.

Promoting the Impossible

Whatever Satan's idea was, it was not only "evil before God" (2 Nephi 2:17) but indeed impossible—impossible because without law there would be more than chaos, confusion, and anarchy; indeed, "all things must have vanished away" (2 Nephi 2:13). Forcing people to live the gospel is just as impossible. First, it is virtually impossible to force another to choose anything. There is always another option, even if the alternative is death. Those who say, "I had to do it" are actually saying, "I chose to do it rather than face the consequences."https://rsc.byu.edu/vol-11-no-1-2010/war-heaven-satans-continuing-battle-power - _note-20 Second, even a person who performs good deeds, if void of righteous intent, "is counted evil before God" (Moroni 7:6–9).

The fact is that none of the options we have discussed that could have been promoted by Satan would really work. Neither compulsion nor sin are possible ways to save all mankind. President J. Reuben Clark Jr. said, "I question whether the intelligence of man can be compelled. Certainly men cannot be saved in sin, because the laws of salvation and exaltation are founded in righteousness, and not in sin."[22] Yet these impossibilities did not matter to Satan, who "deceiveth the whole world" (Revelation 12:9). He continues still to deceive many into thinking they can "take happiness in sin" (Mormon 2:13), knowing full well that "wickedness never was happiness" (Alma 41:10). His intent, however, is not to save mankind but rather to "bring [mankind] into subjection unto him" (Alma 12:6). It is consistent with his character to seek to deceive mankind into believing they can "enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season" (Hebrews 11:25), thinking "there is no harm in this, . . . and at last we shall be saved in the kingdom of God" (2 Nephi 28:8). To Satan, like others who are motivated by pride, the fact that his plan would not only fail to "redeem all mankind, that one soul shall not be lost" but would have the opposite effect—that not one soul would be saved—was irrelevant as long as he could obtain his desires.

The Archetype of Pride

There are numerous examples of men like Amalickiah, who follow the model that Satan set up as the prototype, and who have as their only "intention to gain favor with" the masses, "that [they] might place [themselves] at [the] head and dethrone the king and take possession of the kingdom" (Alma 47:8). To them, it matters not whether they have to employ lies, deceit, fraud, murder, pretense, war, or any other means, so long as they can gain "the hearts of the people" and eventually obtain "the kingdom" (Alma 47:30, 35). They "care not for the blood of [the] people" (Alma 49:10) and become "exceedingly angry" when they do not obtain their own selfish desires (Alma 49:26; see also Abraham 3:28).

Those who seem to pattern their effort to gain power and control after Satan provide us with a basis for understanding why so many could be deceived into thinking that a premise that would destroy agency was desirable. Consider the argument espoused by Korihor that the need for a Christ was "a foolish and a vain hope" and "the effect of a frenzied mind" (Alma 30:13, 16). He taught that the "foolish traditions" of the gospel of Christ "bind" the people to laws and ordinances, preventing them from enjoying "their rights and privileges" (vv. 27). According to Korihor, who was both tutored and deceived by the devil, those that live by the laws of God are not "a free people" but "are in bondage"). The notion that the laws of Jesus agency and ordinances of Our Heavenly Father are restrictive and prevent us from enjoying true freedom has been used successfully by the adversary to bring souls into captivity for a very long time.

The lie that true freedom means "freedom from all unpleasantness: from hardship, from discipline, from the stern voice of duty, from the pain of self-sacrifice"[24] is a philosophy so "pleasing unto the carnal mind" that it can be promoted with "much success" If real freedom means that there are no restrictions whatsoever, no laws to bind us down, then "whatsoever a man [does is] no crime," and it would not be necessary for an "atonement [to be] made for the sins of men" (v. 17).

Promoting a similar philosophy of indulgence, Nehor used the very same words Lucifer used in the pre-earth life when he told the people "that all mankind should be saved at the last day, and that they need not fear nor tremble, but that they might lift up their heads and rejoice; for the Lord had created all men, and had also redeemed all men; and, in the end, all men should have eternal life" (Alma 1:4; emphasis added).

Such teachings are so "flattering unto the people" (Jacob 7:2) that those who promote them often draw "away much people after [them]; even so much that they [begin] to be very powerful" (Alma 2:2). Their hope is to "gain the voice of the people" (Alma 2:4) and eventually obtain the kingdom.

The Book of Mormon gives repeated examples of prideful individuals who, through their cunning and flattering words, amass all who will follow them through a pattern of rebellion to mutiny, and from mutiny to war. Wars thus instigated are an effort of the wicked to obtain "power and authority over the people" (Alma 51:8). Nehor, Amlici, Amalickiah, and a multitude of others have followed this pattern, which Satan established for manipulating the minds and "the hearts of many people to do wickedly" (Alma 46:10). They have led men into thinking, as Cain did, "I am free" (Moses 5:33), when in reality they become "bound down by the chains of hell" (Alma 13:30; see also 2 Nephi 1:13). It seems to be a pattern of ancient date; perhaps it even existed from the very beginning.

Conclusion

Although information found in scripture is quite limited in regard to what took place in the War in Heaven, we have tried to draw on a few sources and examples to expand our perspective of the possibilities. Although we may not completely understand exactly what Satan proposed, in understanding his motives we can perhaps find the more significant lessons for our own battles with the adversary. For example, C. Terry Warner provided a thoughtful insight as he scrutinized his own "self-seeking" in his efforts to follow the Savior:

> In the way I went about my quest, I found resemblances to Lucifer's method of waging the great war he began in heaven against his own brothers and sisters. He had proposed a scheme that he maintained would benefit us all, but it was really for his own glory. So when his self-nomination was rejected, he smarted with disappointment and resentment and set out to make anyone and everyone pay for his defeat. Unwilling, like many of us, to take responsibility for his sin, he sought to shift it elsewhere; as John beheld in vision, he "accused [his righteous brethren] before our God day and night" (Revelation 12:10). He spread his discontent to throngs of others, stoked their indignation, and marshaled them into a coalition sustained by their shared resentment.

Whether Satan's plan to destroy the agency laws Jesus created for mankind was a proposition to force righteous behavior, allow sinful conduct without consequence, or some other agency-destroying proposal we have not discussed, the intent and result is the same. His prideful resentment and anger caused him to seek "that all men might be miserable like unto himself" (2 Nephi 2:27). His rebellion caused him to lose that which he wanted most—the honor and power of God. The sad irony is that the honor and power that Satan sought was available to him and all those that overcome their pride and humbly honor God and keep his commandments. For God has said, "If ye are faithful ye shall be . . . crowned with honor, and glory, and immortality, and eternal life" (D&C 75:5).

Our Heavenly Father loves his children and "delight[s] to honor those who serve [him] in righteousness" (D&C 76:5). However, being overcome by pride, Satan rejected the plan that could have made him "equal with" God (D&C 88:107) because he wanted "the pleasure of being above the rest." Having "sought that which was evil before God" (2 Nephi 2:17), he "kept not his first estate" (Abraham 3:28) and lost all opportunity for the honor and power he sought.

As we study and ponder these things, we should hope for more inspiration than speculation, to the end that we might come to appreciate the goodness of our God and avoid the snares of the adversary. Whatever Satan's reasons and methods this much we know: "Lo, he is fallen!" (D&C 76:27). And so will we fall if we believe that anything proposed by Satan and his followers is preferable in any way to the teachings of God and his prophets. For the day will surely come that Satan shall be cast "into the bottomless pit, . . . that he should deceive the nations no more" (Revelation 20:3).

Notes

[1] The scriptural term "third part" is often misapplied as the fraction one-third. As one author put it, "When John speaks of the war in heaven, his description of Lucifer's activities is slightly different from the typical interpretation in Latter-day Saint circles. He states that the devil drew away a 'third part' of the hosts of heaven with him (see Revelation 12:4; D&C 29:36–38). The distinction between 'one-third' and a 'third part' may seem subtle, yet it is real. The fraction one-third implies 33 1/3 percent, whereas the phrase 'third part' implies a numerically undetermined segment of the population who symbolize the fact that Satan's power over the premortal spirits was limited. Thus, the numerology in the passage implies that we have no knowledge of the fraction or percentage of the Father's children who followed the adversary. All we know is that Satan had a limited influence over those in the presence of God" (Alonzo L. Gaskill, The Lost Language of Symbolism [Salt Lake City: Deseret Book, 2003], 118–119). For further explanation of the symbolic use of the term third part as meaning "limited" or its use in reference to meaning "partial and incomplete," or what has been termed "remnant theology," see Richard D. Draper, Opening the Seven Seals (Salt Lake City: Deseret Book, 1991), 95–96, 108; Jay Parry and Donald Parry, Understanding the Book of Revelation (Salt Lake City: Deseret Book, 1998), 110.

[2] Although 2 Thessalonians 2:9 seems to imply that this may be a reference to a specific individual in the Christian Church, Elder McConkie taught that "Lucifer is the man of sin, spoken of by Paul who was to be revealed in the last days before the second coming of the Lord. (2 Thess. 2:1–12)" (Doctrinal New Testament Commentary [Salt Lake City: Bookcraft, 1974], 3:63). See also Joseph Smith, History of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, ed B. H. Roberts, 2nd ed. rev (Salt Lake City: Deseret Book, 1957), 1:175; Joseph Smith Translation, 2 Thessalonians 2:7–9.

[3] President Ezra Taft Benson, “Beware of Pride,” in Conference Report, April 1989, 4. President Harold B. Lee also taught that “Satan sought power and glory for himself . . . [by] the dethroning of God Himself” (The Teachings of Harold B. Lee [Salt Lake City: Bookcraft, 1996], 38).

[5] It is evident that Satan has used force and coercion at times, and would have others “exercise control or dominion or compulsion upon the souls of the children of men” (D&C 121:37). However, there is little or no scriptural evidence that was his intention in the pre-earth life. There have been occasional statements by early Church leaders that may imply such a conclusion. For example, in 1881 President John Taylor taught that Satan “sought to take away the agency of man, to make man a poor miserable serf” (in Journal of Discourses [London: Latter-day Saints’ Book Depot, 1854–96] 22:300). In 1885 Elder Moses Thatcher referred to Satan’s proposal as a “coercive scheme of human redemption” and a “coercive, agency, destroying plan” (in Journal of Discourses, 26:305). But the topic of how Satan had planned to destroy the agency laws Jesus created for man is seldom mentioned in gospel writing until the twentieth century.

At least two different schools of thought have been suggested as possibilities by leaders of the Church.

This article examines the less common prospect that Satan may have proposed that mankind could be saved in sin, as alluded to by President Brigham Young, Orson Pratt, and President J. Reuben Clark, Jr. The idea that is most often taught in the Church today is doctrine that Satan was going to "force" the human family to do his will. After the publication of Elder James E. Talmage's Articles of Faith in 1899 and Jesus the Christ in 1915, this became the most common idea of how Satan proposed to destroy agency. (see Articles of Faith [Salt Lake City: Deseret Book, 1983], 57, and Jesus the Christ [Salt Lake City: Deseret Book, 1984], 8). Since that time it has been taught on a regular basis (see Conference Reports, April 1917, 144; April 1926, 77; October 1936, 60; October 1938, 134; April 1949, 27; April 1950, 24–25; October 1987, 42; May 2008, 40; and Chauncey C. Riddle, "Devils," in Encyclopedia of Mormonism, ed. Daniel H. Ludlow [New York: Macmillan, 1992], 1:379; to cite just a few). Elder Bruce R. McConkie also taught the more common idea of "force," as well as implying the possibility that Satan proposed the idea of salvation after a life of sin (Mormon Doctrine [Salt Lake City: Bookcraft, 1966], 27, 153 and The Millennial Messiah [Salt Lake City: Deseret Book, 1982], 666–67).

[6] The question that arises here is that if Satan "persuadeth no man to do good," and has been evil "from the beginning," was there ever a time when he was a righteous person who was interested in promoting the cause of righteousness? Although the answer to this question may not be definitive, there is information that sheds light on the subject.

That the name Lucifer means "shining one," "light bringer" or "son of the morning" (Bible Dictionary, "Lucifer," 726) implies that at some point he did bear the gospel light. Lehi taught that the devil was "an angel of God" (2 Nephi 2:17).

President George Q. Cannon, commenting on Satan's title as a son of the morning, said: "This angel was a mighty personage, without doubt. The record that is given to us concerning him clearly shows that he occupied a very high position; that he was thought a great deal of " (Millennial Star, September 5, 1895, 563–564). Orson Pratt called Satan "an angel of light, and holy angel, prior to" his standing in opposition to God (in Journal of Discourses, 21:288). Stanza 21 of the poetic version of Doctrine and Covenants 76 refers to Satan as "an angel of light" ("The Answer to W. W. Phelps Esq. a Vision February 1843," Times and Seasons [February 1, 1843] 4:83). It would seem logical to believe that Satan's prominence as "an angel of God" would naturally assume a degree of righteousness, not just the typical qualities such as intellect or natural leadership ability that generally assist individuals to rise to leadership positions. The scriptures say nothing about Satan prior to his rebellion, other than those already quoted and some inferences that could be made from a few others. For example, if we were to use the same comparison that Isaiah used to connect Satan and the king of Babylon (see Isaiah 14:12*c*, 2 Nephi 24:12*a*), with Ezekiel's condemnation of the king of Tyrus, we could conclude that Satan, at least at one time, was righteous enough to be considered by Ezekiel as "perfect"—meaning whole, complete, or sound. He said, "Thou wast perfect in thy ways from the day that thou wast created, till iniquity was found in thee" (Ezekiel 28:15). Moses 4:4 says, "And he became Satan, yea, even the devil" (emphasis added), implying that he was not at first in his adversarial role to the degree that he was after his rebellion.

The Book of Mormon makes it clear that after a person has been "enlightened by the Spirit of God, and have had great knowledge of the things pertaining to righteousness, and then have fallen away into sin and transgression, they become more hardened" (Alma 24:30), which certainly seems to be the case with Satan. To what degree that state of enlightenment (which is generally associated with the "light and truth" that comes with worthiness) is related to righteousness rather than just "having the same instruction and the same information" (Alma 47:36) is difficult to determine (see also Alma 9:19, 23; 21:3; 3 Nephi 6:17–18; D&C 82:3; Smith, Teachings, 67). There seems to be no question that Satan had great knowledge, for without it he could not have become "perdition" (see Joseph Fielding Smith, Doctrines of Salvation [Salt Lake City: Bookcraft, 1973], 2:225), but knowledge does not always mean righteousness. The point is that by the time of the great council in heaven, Satan's pride had cast a dark shadow on any gospel light he may have had. His greatest interest seems to have been himself rather than promoting the personal development and progress of Heavenly Father's children by encouraging righteousness.

[10] This may have been one of the factors that motivated Satan to rebel. Brigham Young taught, "There was a devil in heaven, and he strove to posses the birthright of the Savior" (in Journal of Discourses, 8:279).

[11] Daniel H. Ludlow taught, "What if [God] had never given us any law? It is true that in such a condition we never could have broken a law (committed sin), and thus there would have been no evil" (New Era, September 1973, 14).

[12] President Boyd K. Packer pointed out that the New Testament as well as Lehi teach that "if there is no moral law, there is no sin" and that "moral law assumes accountability; no accountability, no penalties!" ("The Law and the Light," in The Book of Mormon: Jacob Through Words of Mormon, To Learn with Joy, papers from the Fourth Annual Book of Mormon Symposium, ed. Monte S. Nyman and Charles D. 'If you undertake to save all,' said Brigham Young, 'you must save them in unrighteousness and corruption' [in Journal of Discourses, 13:282]. Elder Orson Pratt also taught the difference between the Father's plan to save his children from sin and Lucifer's design to save all mankind in their sins. 'There must be an agency wherever intelligence exists, and without agency no intelligent beings could exist; and . . . Satan sought to destroy this . . . and to redeem them all in their sins' [Journal of Discourses, 21:288]." [19] Joseph Smith taught, "The devil could not compel mankind to do evil. . . . God would not exert any compulsory means, and the devil could not; and such ideas as were entertained [on these subjects] by many were absurd" (History of the Church, 4:358).

[20] For further explanation on the doctrine of agency compared to freedom, see Oaks, "Free Agency and Freedom," 1–17.

[21] This is not to imply that no good ever comes from doing the right thing for the wrong reasons. The following commentary on Moroni 7:6–13 may be helpful: "These verses could easily be misunderstood. It is not that evil persons—or persons with less than noble motives—cannot do good things. They certainly can. It is just that their deeds prove in the end to be a blessing neither to themselves nor to those they serve. That is, so long as good deeds are motivated by selfish or malicious desires they cannot transform and enrich either the giver or the receiver" (Joseph Fielding McConkie, Robert L. Millet, and Brent L. Top, Doctrinal Commentary on the Book of Mormon [Salt Lake City: Bookcraft, 1987–92], 4:334). Righteousness is not a by-product of forced obedience.

[22] Clark, in Conference Report, October 1949, 193.

[23] President Ezra Taft Benson taught, "In the pre-earthly council, Lucifer placed his proposal in competition with the Father's plan as advocated by Jesus Christ (see Moses 4:1–3). He wished to be honored above all others (see 2 Nephi 24:13). In short, his prideful desire was to dethrone God (see D&C 29:36; 76:28). . . . The scriptures abound with evidences of the severe consequences of the sin of pride to individuals, groups, cities, and nations" (in Conference Report, April 1989, 4). To thoroughly examine the consequences of pride on the heart of man, and particularly on Satan, is a study that is beyond the scope of this paper. However, it is made clear in President Benson's marvelous message that the prideful often promote and even begin to believe things that are absolutely false! Pride overcomes wisdom, right thinking, and sound judgment, replacing them with self interest and enmity. It prevents us from seeing things clearly. The prideful "won't change their minds to accept truths, because to do so implies they have been wrong" (Benson, in Conference Report, April 1989, 5). Pride is deceptive (see Obadiah 1:3). It makes its victims believe they can obtain the impossible. In Satan's case that was obtaining the "honor" and "power" of God (see D&C 29:36) in ways that are contrary to truth. It creates illusions that lead those possessed by it in the opposite direction of all that is good. It is indeed an "ugly" and "damning sin" (Benson, in Conference Report, April 1989, 5). "In the premortal council, it was pride that felled Lucifer" (Benson, in Conference Report, April 1989, 3).

President Benson also taught that "the antidote for pride is humility" (Benson, in Conference Report, April 1989, 6), and the "opposite of pride is humbleness, meekness, submissiveness (see Alma 13:28), or teachableness" (in Conference Report, April 1986, 5). The author has come to believe that the opposite of pride can be best characterized by one word—charity—which includes all of the virtues mentioned by President Benson. Charity is the antithesis of pride. Charity is "the greatest of all" virtues (Moroni 7:46), and pride is appropriately referred to by C. S. Lewis as "the great sin" and "the utmost evil." According to Lewis,

"it was through Pride that the devil became the devil: Pride leads to every other vice: [and] is the complete anti-God state of mind" (Mere Christianity [New York: Macmillan, 1960], 108–9). Jesus Christ is the epitome of charity, and Satan is the epitome of pride. To understand Satan and his motives one must understand pride and its effects, just as one must understand charity to understand Jesus Christ. Perhaps the best window through which we can see and understand Satan is through those who love that which he loves, and who do what he does, and are possessed by pride as he is, for they are "but mirroring our ego-saturated brother in the premortal world who wanted things his own way" (Neal A. Maxwell, Wherefore, Ye Must Press Forward [Salt Lake City: Deseret Book, 1977], 46).

I tend to agree with what the Mormons teach on this subject. We will never learn the truth if we don't put down our EDOMITE JROCCC BIBLES and DO OUR OWN HOMEWORK as to what is going on both back then and today. We have to listen to all groups who teach some of what Jesus taught to discover the BIGGER PICTURE. The Edomite authors of most of what we read in the Bible especially the Old Testament are proven misinformation, disinformation and lies.
